DAMIM BIOGRAPHY

London purveyors of cathartic existential outrage DAMIM (feat. Nathanael Underwood, ex-Akercocke) have joined forces with Apocalyptic Witchcraft Recordings to unleash their new album, entitled "A Fine Game Of Nil", later this year.

The forthcoming album was mixed by Neil Kernon (Nile, Cannibal Corpse, Judas Priest, Nevermore etc.), features guest appearances by Iliia of Indesinence/Binah/Necromaniac & Louis Coates of Agonyst and will see a worldwide digital, vinyl & CD release via APW on 28th June 2019.

The band comments:

"We are privileged to be able to announce that we will be releasing „A Fine Game Of Nil“ through Apocalyptic Witchcraft Recordings, joining the ranks of the likes of The Infernal Sea, Skaldic Curse, The Antichrist Imperium and From The Bogs Of Aughiska on their impressive roster and look forward to be working with such a focussed, talented, responsive & exceptionally professional label.

In the making of „A Fine Game Of Nil“ there were no shortcuts - we took our time composing, honing and recording some of our heaviest, most jagged material to date and we employed the best in the business to bring it all together. The man who mixed greats such as Nile's „Annihilation Of The Wicked“, Nevermore's „The Politics Of Ecstasy“ & Judas Priest's „Unleashed In The East“, Neil Kernon took on this project and, aside from providing boundless insight and more heavy metal anecdotes than you can shake a stick at, he did a phenomenal job."
